JOYCE'S TASTELESS SOLUTION Of Copatha! 114 Chembers Street, N. Y. TO THE MEDICAL PROFESSION.

CENTLEMEN.—The valuable medicinal properties of Balsam Copniba have long been recognized by the faculty, but the great disbeen recognized by the faculty, but the great disadvantage arising from its nauseous taste has hitherto prevented its administration in many diseases for which it is particularly adapted. The usual 'modes operands' of prescribing it, either in the form of an Emulsion or Gelatinous Capsules, has not been found satisfactory, being liable to some objection, either from the difficulty experienced by some individuals in the deglutition of the Capsule or the small quantity of Copaiba generally found in the Emission.

Joyce's tasteless solution of Copaiba is the most unique preparation yet introduced to the medical profession, as it contains 50 per cent. of the purest Para Copaiba, without taste or smell, and at same time mixes clearly and freely with water, and is pronounced by the most eminent physicians and analytical chemists in the old and new worlds to contain all the medicinal properties of Balsam Copaiba without its disagreable characteristics.

It is an efficient preparation for all diseases of the mucous membranes, and particularly Gono-rheera, Leucorrheea, Gleet, painful bemorrhoids. silections, and in chronic irritation of the bladder.

100 REWARD FOR NEGRO BOY GUSTUS.—This Boy of mine left home on Monday morning. Ith February, with passes from myself to go on the railroad to Milledgeville, where he had been employed during the session of the Legislature as waiting servant in Brown's Hotel. I learn, however, that he did not ret in to Milledgeville at all, and has not beet heard of since he left home. He has, doubtless either attempted to make his way off by depending upon his white man appearance; or has been decoyed away by some designing white person. The above neward will be paid to any one apprehending an returning said Boy; or Fitty Dollars for lodging frim in some jail and giving me information. Description.—Gus presents quite a schile-man appearance. His complexion is fair, his manners and expression genteel and polite. He is about 30 years old—medium size and weight—hair black and straight—eyes grey or blue—the left hand somewhat withered and stiffened from diseae, and on laughing one eye is contracted, and mouth and on laughing one eye is contracted, and mouth drawn to one side. He has a large carbunch scar on the back of his neck—dresses genteelly and wears a watch. He carries with him a banjo and picks it tolerable well, and sometimes acts the barber. He has often been taken for a white man The public will please watch out for Gustus, an

VALUABLE FARM IN VIRGINIA.

A VALUABLE FARM IN VIRGINIA, (1800 Acres) for Sale.—Having leased for a term of years, "The Fauquier White Sulphur Springs" to persons whose high reputation warrants the belief they will be kept in the best style, the undersigned now offers for sale the valuable farm which surrounds the Springs.

It contains upwards of 450 acres of low grounds—remarkable for extraordinary crops of corn, and capable of being made the best possible mea. 2ws. As part of this land yielded 100 bushels of a vigic acre, in 18'.3, the twelfth year of successive littivation, without manure; and in 1854, bad as was the season, produced 70 bushels—the Farm is easily susceptible of division, and is certainly one of the best in Virginia.

Terms: One-third on the 1st of December next, and the balance in one and two years thereafter, with interest from date of delivery.

For further particulars inquire of the subscriber by letters addressed to "Warrenton Springs, Virginia," or to Washington, D. C.
